CHUCK NOLL

HEAD COACH

In 1989 Chuck Noll took the Steelers to the playoffs for the first time in five years, and he was rewarded by being named AFC Coach of the Year for the first time by the Professional Football Writers of America. It was an honor long overdue for a man whose professional football career spans five decades.

The second-winningest active coach and fifth-winningest in the history of the NFL, the 58-year old Noll begins his 22nd season as the Steelers' head coach in 1990. His overall career record of 193-140-1 (.579) puts him within seven victories of becoming the fifth head coach in NFL history to win 200 games and the fourth coach to win 200 games with the same team.

Noll's 193 wins are topped by only George Halas (325), Don Shula (285), Tom Landry (270), and Curly Lambeau (229), with only Halas (325 for Chicago), Landry (270 for Dallas), and Shula (212 for Miami) winning more games with one team. Shula, Noll's former boss with the Baltimore Colts, is the only current coach with more wins and the only active NFL coach who has been a head coach longer than Noll's 22 years. But Noll has been in charge of the same team longer than any of the NFL's current coaches and is one of just four men — Lambeau (29), Landry (29), and Steve Owen (23) — to lead the same team for 22 consecutive seasons.

Noll's overall record includes a 177-132-1 (.573) regular season mark and 16-8 in postseason. His postseason winning percentage of .667 ranks fifth in NFL history and is the highest among the six coaches who have been in 15 or more postseason contests. It also includes four Super Bowl wins, which distinguish Noll as the only coach in league history to claim four Super Bowl titles.

Noll was named the 14th head coach in Steelers history in 1969. He brought with him a solid belief in building through the draft. His first draft class included such future stars as Hall of Famer Joe Greene, Jon Kolb, and L. C. Greenwood. A 1-13 inaugural season gave Noll the first overall pick of the 1970 draft, which he used to select Hall of Famer Terry Bradshaw on the first round and Mel Blount on the third. In fact, Noll selected five players in his first four draft classes who are now members of the Hall of Fame, including three of his first 20 and four of his first 38 draft picks. Records of 5-9 and 6-8 in Noll's second and third seasons reflected the progress his young team was making.

In 1972 the Steelers turned the corner with an 11-3 campaign for their first division title in the club's 40-year history. They won a thrilling 13-7 playoff game over Oakland before losing to Miami 21-17 in the AFC Championship, but this began a streak of eight years of postseason play.

In 1973 the Steelers claimed a wild card playoff berth but lost to Oakland 33-14 in the wild card game. The following year Noll got his second division title and the first of six consecutive as he led the Steelers to a 10-3-1 finish. But the Steelers were not finished yet as they defeated Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) en route to Super Bowl IX. A 16-6 domination of Minnesota handed Noll and the Steelers their first Super Bowl trophy.

In 1975 the Steelers became the third team, joining Green Bay (Super Bowls I and II) and Miami (VII and VIII) to repeat as Super Bowl champion. They plowed through the regular season with a 12-2 record before dispatching Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs and Dallas (21-17) in Super Bowl X. Noll joined Vince Lombardi and Shula as the only coaches to win two Super Bowls.

The Steelers struggled in 1976, starting 1-4 before nine straight wins left them at 10-4 to win the AFC Central division. They downed Baltimore 40-14 in the playoffs but could not beat Oakland, losing 24-7. A 9-5 finish in 1977 preceded the Steelers' 34-21 playoff loss to Denver.

In 1978 Noll got his team back on track as they posted a league best 14-2 record. They dominated Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5) in the playoffs to set up a Super Bowl rematch vs. Dallas in Super Bowl XIII. The Steelers' 35-31 win made them the first team to win three Super Bowls.

The Steelers made history one more time after a 12-4 campaign in 1979 and postseason wins over Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). Their 31-19 Super Bowl XIV win over the Los Angeles Rams gave the Steelers an unprecedented fourth Super Bowl championship and the title, "Team of the Decade."

Noll's 1980 and 1981 teams fell short with 9-7 and 8-8 records, but in 1982, the Steelers' 50th season, the team rebounded to a 6-3 finish in a strike-interrupted season.

They lost their playoff game, however, 31-28 to San Diego.

In 1983 and 1984 Noll claimed his eighth and ninth division titles. The 1983 team went 10-6 before losing to the Los Angeles Raiders in the playoffs, 38-10. In 1984 the team advanced as far as the AFC Championship game with a 9-7 regular season mark and a 24-17 playoff win in Denver. The hope for a fifth Super Bowl appearance vanished in the Steelers' 45-28 AFC Championship loss to Miami.

Noll's longest playoff drought lasted from 1985-88, but he ended that last season with a 9-7 team that claimed an AFC wild card berth as it won five of its final six games. The team showed its character by bouncing back from an 0-2 start in which the Steelers were outscored 92-10. They proved their character again in a 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston, and the following week dominated Denver before losing 24-23 in the final minutes.

Noll's 38-year pro football career includes seven seasons as a player, nine as an assistant coach, and 22 as a head coach. He began as a 21st-round draft choice of the Cleveland Browns in 1953, where he played guard and linebacker through 1959. He retired at the age of 27 and began his coaching career in 1960 as an assistant to Sid Gillman with the Los Angeles Chargers.

In 1966 Noll joined Shula's Baltimore Colts staff for a three-year stint that included a total of seven losses and a Super Bowl III loss to the New York Jets. Following Super Bowl III, Noll was named head coach of the Steelers.

Charles Henry Noll was born in Cleveland, Ohio on January 5, 1932. He attended Holy Trinity School and Benedictine High prior to enrolling at Dayton, where he studied education and was captain of the football team and is a charter member of the school's athletic hall of fame. Noll was graduated from Dayton in 1953 with a bachelor of science degree in education, and in 1980 he was presented a Distinguished Alumni Award. He also has two honorary degrees, receiving a Ph.D. in humanitarian service from Duquesne in 1980 and a Ph.D. in commercial science from Robert Morris College on May 11, 1990. Noll and his wife Marianne have one son, Chris. The Nolls live in Upper St. Clair.

ASSISTANT COACHES

RON BLACKLEDGE

Offensive Line Coach

Ron Blackledge enters his ninth season on the Steelers staff and his 32nd year in coaching. He joined the Steelers on Aug. 31, 1982 as an offensive assistant and was named offensive line coach two days later. From 1984-88 Blackledge shared the offensive line coaching duties, focusing on the tackles and tight ends. He took over responsibility for the entire line in 1989.

Blackledge's 32 years in coaching include 9 seasons at the high school level in Canton, Oh., 14 in college, and 9 in the NFL.

A native of North Canton, Oh., Blackledge's first coaching position was at Canton South High in 1960. He also coached at Timken (1963-65) and Glenwood (1966-67) high schools in Canton before moving on to Ashland College as offensive line coach in 1968. Following 2 years at Ashland were stints as offensive line coach for Cincinnati (1970-72), Kentucky (1973-75), and Princeton (1976).

Blackledge was named offensive coordinator at Kent State in 1977. He served as that school's head coach from 1979-81 before joining the Steelers the next year.

Blackledge played tight end and defensive end for Bowling Green from 1957-59. He was graduated with a bachelors degree in physical education in 1960, and in 1967 he received his masters in guidance and physical education from Ohio University.

DAVE BRAZIL

Defensive Coordinator

Dave Brazil begins his first year as an NFL coordinator after being promoted to defensive coordinator on March 1 of this year. He joined the Steelers on Feb. 9, 1989 as linebackers coach after 5 seasons with the Kansas City Chiefs.

Brazil is a veteran of 30 years of coaching, including 10 at the high school level, 12 in college, and 8 at the professional level.

In 1968 Brazil got his first college job at Holy Cross, where he spent 2 seasons as offensive and defensive coordinator. He followed that with 2 years as defensive coordinator at Tulsa (1970-71) and 3 seasons (1972-74) as offensive and defensive coordinator for Eastern Michigan.

Brazil got his first professional coaching position in 1975 as defensive coordinator for the World Football League's Detroit Wheels. The following season he held the same post for the WFL Chicago Fire.

In 1978 Brazil returned to the college ranks, spending 2 years as Boston College's defensive coordinator and 3 (1980-82) at Kent State.

Brazil moved to the NFL in 1984 as a defensive assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs. He coached the Chiefs' secondary in 1987 and the linebackers in 1988.

Brazil was graduated in 1958 with a business administration degree from the University of Detroit.

JOHN FOX

Defensive Backs Coach

John Fox embarks upon his second season as the Steelers' defensive backs coach after joining the team Feb. 10, 1989. His first NFL coaching position follows 3 years as defensive coordinator and secondary coach at the University of Pittsburgh.

Prior to joining the Steelers, Fox spent 10 seasons coaching defensive secondaries at 7 different colleges. He began in 1979 at U.S. International University. Following were one-year stints at Boise State (1980), Long Beach State (1981), Utah (1982), Kansas (1983), and Iowa State (1984).

Fox took his first coaching position at the professional level in 1985, coaching the defensive backs for the USFL's Los Angeles Express. He returned to the college ranks that fall, joining Mike Gottfried's staff at Kansas.

In 1986 Fox went from Kansas to Pittsburgh as defensive coordinator under Gottfried. In his first season, Fox's defense ranked ninth in the country, yielding 276.9 yards per game. The following year they jumped to fourth with 233.0 yards per game, and in 1988 finished fourth again with a 254.2-yards-per-game average including second in pass defense with 118.9 yards per game.

Fox played defensive back at San Diego State from 1975-77. He was graduated with a bachelors degree in physical education and a teaching certificate in 1977.

JOE GREENE

Defensive Line Coach

Joe Greene begins his fourth season coaching the Steelers defensive line, which is where he made a lasting mark as one of the outstanding defensive linemen ever to play in the NFL. Greene joined the Steelers' coaching staff on Feb. 19, 1987. Five months later he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

Greene was the first player Chuck Noll drafted in 1969, and is one of 3 Steelers assistants who also played under Noll. A perennial All-Pro defensive tackle for the Steelers for 13 seasons (1969-82), he made 10 Pro Bowl appearances in addition to many other honors. Greene retired after the 1982 season.

Greene won NFL defensive rookie of the year honors and played in the first of 8 consecutive Pro Bowls after his rookie season in 1969. He was the fourth player selected overall in the 1969 draft. The heart of the famous "Steel Curtain" defense, Greene was widely considered the most dominating defensive lineman in the NFL. He accumulated 66 career quarterback sacks and still ranks second in team history, 7 years after his retirement. Greene was named to the Steelers' All-Time Team in 1982.

A native of Temple, Tex., Greene was a consensus All-American at North Texas State.

DICK HOAK

Offensive Backfield Coach

Dick Hoak enters his 19th season as a member of the Steelers coaching staff and his 29th year with the organization. He is the longest-tenured Steelers assistant and one of 3 current coaches who also played for Chuck Noll. Hoak's last year as a player (1969) was Noll's first year as the Steelers head coach. He was named the team's offensive backfield coach in 1972 after one year of coaching high school football. Hoak is the only remaining assistant from all four Steelers Super Bowl staffs.

Hoak enjoyed an outstanding 10-year career as a Steelers running back after being drafted on the seventh round in 1961 from Penn State. He gained 3,965 career rushing yards and when he retired after the 1969 season, Hoak ranked as the second-leading rusher in team history, trailing Hall of Famer John Henry Johnson. Today, 21 years after the end of his career, Hoak is still the fourth-leading rusher behind Franco Harris, Johnson, and Frank Pollard. He was the team's rushing leader in 1965, '68, and '69, and his career-high 858 yards in 1968 ranked fourth in the NFL that year and led to his Pro Bowl appearance. He was also honored as the Dapper Dan 1968 man of the year in sports.

Hoak was a standout running back and quarterback for Penn State. He was graduated in 1961 with a degree in social studies.

DWAIN PAINTER

Receivers Coach

Dwain Painter enters his third year with the Steelers since joining the staff on Feb. 15, 1988. He is a veteran of 26 years of coaching including 6 at the high school level, 17 in college, and 3 with the Steelers.

In 1971 Painter got his start at the college level as offensive coordinator at San Jose State. After 2 seasons he was named quarterbacks/receivers coach at the College of San Mateo, followed by 2 years as offensive coordinator at Brigham Young from 1974-75.

In Painter's next position he coached the quarterbacks and receivers at UCLA from 1976-78, leading to his first head coaching position at Northern Arizona in 1979. In three seasons at Northern Arizona Painter compiled a record of 16-17. He then served as assistant head coach for 4 years (1982-85) at Georgia Tech.

Stops as offensive coordinator at Texas in 1986 and Illinois in 1987 preceded Painter's move to the Steelers in 1988.

The 48-year old Painter attended Gateway High in Monroeville. He was the first quarterback to play for the successful Pete Antimarino. Painter was a member of the school's first graduating class in 1960.

Painter played defensive back at Rutgers from 1961-64. He was graduated in 1964 with a bachelor's degree in physical education and in 1966 received his masters in education.

BOB VALESENTE

Linebackers Coach

Bob Valesente is the newest member of the Steelers coaching staff. He was named linebackers coach on March 9 after serving as assistant head coach/defensive coordinator at the University of Pittsburgh last year. A veteran of 28 years of coaching, Valesente has been head coach, assistant head coach, or offensive or defensive coordinator for 7 colleges.

Valesente was freshman defensive coordinator at Cornell (1964-68), followed by 6 seasons coaching Cornell's varsity secondary (1969-74).

In 1975-76 Valesente was secondary coach at Cincinnati, followed by stops as defensive backs coach at Arizona (1977-79) and defensive coordinator/linebackers coach at Mississippi State (1980-81).

In 1982 Valesente got his first NFL coaching position as secondary/special teams coach for the Baltimore Colts. He returned to the college ranks in 1984 as assistant head coach/quarterbacks coach at Kansas under head coach Mike Gottfried. He succeeded Gottfried as head coach from 1986-87, then spent one year as offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach at Maryland.

A graduate of Ithaca College, Valesente played halfback. He was graduated in 1962 with a bachelor's in physical education and in 1965 he earned his masters in education.

JON KOLB

Tight Ends and Conditioning Coach

John Kolb is in his 22nd year with the Steelers and his ninth season as a member of the coaching staff. For the second straight year, he coaches the tight ends in addition to overseeing the conditioning of all of the Steelers players.

One of the 22 players who were on all four Steelers Super Bowl champion teams, Kolb is one of 3 Steelers assistants who also played for Chuck Noll. He joined the coaching staff as conditioning coach on Feb. 17, 1982, the day he announced his retirement as a player. Later that year Kolb took over as defensive line coach. After coaching the defensive line from 1982-86, Kolb coached special teams in 1987-88 and was conditioning coach and an offensive assistant in 1989.

In 1969 Kolb's career with the Steelers began as a third-round selection. He helped pave the way to four Super Bowl titles over the next 13 years from his offensive tackle position. Kolb played in 177 games to rank sixth in team history, including 156 of a possible 157 in his first 10 seasons with 112 consecutive starts.

Kolb was a second-team All-America selection at Oklahoma State. Playing center and linebacker, he was also a two-time All-Big Eight performer. He was graduated with a bachelor's degree in physical education.

GEORGE STEWART

Special Teams Coach

George Stewart begins his second season coaching the Steelers' special teams. He joined the staff on March 3, 1989 in his first NFL coaching position. Under Stewart last season the Steelers' special teams showed improvement in many areas, including kick returner Rod Woodson leading the NFL with a 27.3-yard average on kickoff returns to earn election to the Pro Bowl.

Stewart is in the eighth year of his coaching career, which began in 1983 as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Arkansas, under head coach Lou Holtz. In 1984 he followed Holtz to Minnesota as offensive line coach.

After 2 seasons at Minnesota, Stewart went with Holtz to Notre Dame in 1986.

While at Notre Dame he coached the tight ends and special teams in 1986 and 1987 and the defensive ends in 1988.

As a player, Stewart was an All-America guard under Holtz at Arkansas from 1977-80. He was named to the All-Southwest Conference team as a junior when the Razorbacks were 10-2. After being named team captain his senior year, he suffered a knee injury in the fourth game which ended his college playing career.

Stewart spent 2 years in business in Little Rock, Ark. prior to returning to Arkansas as a graduate assistant.

JOE WALTON

Offensive Coordinator

Joe Walton was named offensive coordinator on Feb. 16 of this year after 7 seasons as head coach of the New York Jets. Beginning his 30th season in the NFL this year, Walton has been an NFL coach for the past 20 years after a 7-year playing career and 2 seasons as a scout.

Walton's NFL career began as a second-round draft choice of the Washington Redskins in 1957. He played tight end for 4 seasons for Washington (1957-60) before being traded to the New York Giants, where he played from 1961-63. He finished his career with 178 receptions for 2,623 yards and 26 touchdowns.

In 1967 Walton returned to the NFL as a scout for the Giants. Two years later he began his coaching career with a 5-year stint (1969-73) coaching the Giants' wide receivers and passing game.

Walton joined the Redskins' coaching staff in 1974 and was named offensive coordinator in 1978, a position he held for 3 seasons before moving to the Jets as offensive coordinator in 1981.

In 1983 Walton was named head coach of the Jets. He compiled an overall record of 53-57-1 in 7 seasons with the Jets.

A native of nearby Beaver Falls, Pa., Walton attended Pitt where he was an All-America tight end and linebacker from 1954-56. Walton's father, Frank ("Tiger"), was the Steelers' line coach in 1947.

Over the last eight games of the 1989 season he rushed for 566 yards, a pace that would have put him over 1,000 yards with a stronger first half... Posted two 100-yard games late in the year vs. Houston and New England... Is the fourth running back to be drafted on the first round by Chuck Noll... As the seventh player selected overall in the 1989 draft, he was the Steelers' highest first-round selection since Terry Bradshaw was first overall in 1970.

RODNEY CARTER

Running Back

6-0 210 4th year

Purdue

24

An outstanding athlete who is the Steelers' pass-catching specialist out of the backfield... In three seasons has made 86 receptions, which ranks third among current Steelers behind Louis Lipps and Merrill Hoge, despite starting only three games... Has scored 12 touchdowns including eight receiving and four rushing, and has also completed three of the four halfback option passes he has attempted in the last two years... Has made a tremendous recovery from a serious knee injury suffered his rookie year... Made second-longest run ever by a Steeler at Three Rivers Stadium, going 63 yards for a touchdown vs. Denver in 1988... An excellent baseball player, he was drafted by the Texas Rangers out of high school.

Florida

A prize catch in the 1989 Plan B free agent market... Signed with the Steelers after spending his first six NFL seasons with the Minnesota Vikings... Made 22 receptions last year, the most by a Steelers tight end since 1983... He caught at least one pass in every game he played except the opener, and scored a touchdown against his former team, Minnesota... His 22 receptions and 326 receiving yards in 1989 were both career highs... Was originally drafted by the San Francisco 49ers in 1983, but was claimed off waivers by the Vikings... Caught five passes for 76 yards in the Steelers' two playoff games last year.

BILLY GRIGGS

Tight End

6-3 240 6th year
Virginia

81

A veteran of five seasons in the NFL who joined the Steelers this year as a Plan B free agent... Spent first five seasons with the New York Jets, where he made 25 receptions and started 14 games... Adds depth to the Steelers' tight end position, which has increased to three players... Made a career-high 14 receptions for 133 yards for the Jets in 1988, including six catches vs. Buffalo... His brother David is a linebacker for the Miami Dolphins and his cousin Anthony is a linebacker for the Kansas City Chiefs... Is one of five players in the NFL who hail from Pennsauken, New Jersey.

TERRY O'SHEA

Tight End

6-4 240 2nd year
California (Pa.)

85

Surprising newcomer in 1989 who was the only free agent rookie who made the opening day roster... Played in all 16 games and started two when Mike Mularkey was injured... Also contributed on special teams and gained playing experience as the second tight end in short yardage and goal line situations... Made his first NFL reception in week two vs. Cincinnati... He is a native of Pittsburgh, where he attended Seton LaSalle High School.

DERMONTTI DAWSON

Center/Guard

6-2 275 3rd year
Kentucky

63

A very solid lineman who is team's best center but was a starter at guard as a rookie... Has started 20 consecutive games including the last 16 at center and the previous four at right guard... Is the first player since 1976 other than Mike Webster to play center for the Steelers... Missed eight games of rookie season with knee injury, but started five games... His hobby is baking cookies.

JOHN RIENSTRA

Guard

6-5 268 5th year
Temple

79

A future Pro Bowl player who is rapidly developing as the Steelers' best offensive lineman... Was the Steelers' top draft choice in 1986, becoming the first offensive lineman ever drafted on the first round by Chuck Noll... Started 14 games at left guard last year... Had his playing time reduced because of injuries in his first three seasons, but once healthy he has demonstrated his vast potential... In 1986 he was one of nine finalists for the Outland Trophy, which is presented to the nation's top lineman.

TERRY LONG

Guard

5-11 275 7th year
East Carolina

74

Powerful and mobile lineman who is a perfect fit for the Steelers' trapping and pulling blocking schemes... Is the shortest lineman in the NFL at 5-11, but he takes advantage of his height with a low center of gravity and good leverage... Has been a regular starter at right guard for the past five and a half seasons... Is one of the strongest players on the team... After high school he joined the Army's Special Forces, where he made more than 60 parachute jumps with the 82nd Airborne Division... Owns and operates his own peanut business.

BRIAN BLANKENSHIP

Guard/Center

6-1 275 4th year
Nebraska

60

A versatile lineman who has played both guard positions and can also play center... Has been a big contributor since returning to Steelers twice after failing to make opening day roster in 1986 and 1988... In 1987 was starter for strike replacement team and remained on roster for full season until being waived the next year... Has been a starter for 22 of 42 games with Steelers... Was academic All-Big Eight player in college.

One in a series recognizing the little things that add up to Pittsburgh—the city we at Westinghouse have called home for over 100 years.

Some people only dream of following in the footsteps of Pittsburgh's greatest athletes. Yet, there are thousands who do so every day.

In Oakland, a flagstone path leads from the Cathedral of Learning to Heinz Chapel. A path that's flanked by the names of some of Pittsburgh's finest athletes. Players who gave their sport everything they had. And gave our city more thrills than it ever expected.

This fall, new names will be added to the walk. Joining the likes of Don Hennon, All-American basketball player. Jerry Richey, first Pittsburgher to run a four-minute mile. Kathy Stetler, four-time All-American swimmer. And Joe Walton, offensive coordinator of the Pittsburgh Steelers. A tradition that began nearly 40 years ago. And just one of the many details that makes Pittsburgh a unique and endlessly fascinating place to live and work.

You can be sure... if it's Westinghouse

CHUCK LANZA

Center

6-2 265 3rd year
Notre Dame

51

A native of Coraopolis, Pennsylvania who gained more playing time in second season last year... A very strong and solid lineman who also contributes to special teams... Played in all 16 games as a rookie followed by 11 appearances in 1989... Did not miss a single game in four-year college career... Was the 11th offensive lineman drafted in 1988... Lived in the Pittsburgh area until he was 13.

TUNCH ILKIN

Offensive Tackle

6-3 266 11th year
Indiana State

Two-time Pro Bowl performer and team captain who is known as a consistently reliable blocker and the leader of the offensive line... Has gained a reputation as one of the NFL's best pass blockers, allowing only six and a half sacks over the past four seasons, an average of one every nine games or less than two per year... He has started 101 of his last 102 games, and with 43 consecutive starts leads all current Steelers... He has not missed a start in a non-strike game since opening day of the 1986 season, with his last 82 starts at right tackle, the previous 11 at left tackle... Is the first Steelers offensive tackle in 24 years to be voted to the Pro Bowl twice... Did not make the Steelers' roster as a rookie in 1980, but was called back when several linemen got injured... A native of Istanbul, Turkey, he moved to the United States at the age of two.

JOHN JACKSON

Offensive Tackle

6-6 288 3rd year
Eastern Kentucky

65

A rapidly improving player who settled in as the regular starter at left tackle in his second season last year... Has been a very pleasant surprise for a 10th-round draft choice, playing in 30 games with 12 starts in two seasons... Has tremendous size and agility... A very strong player who has developed quickly with use of good techniques in run blocking and pass blocking... A former Boy Scout who is active in community with Boy Scout troops... Was team's co-captain in college.

TOM RICKETTS

Offensive Tackle

6-5 298 2nd year
Pittsburgh

First-round draft choice last year who played in 12 games as a rookie...

GREG LLOYD

Linebacker

6-2 222 3rd year
Fort Valley State

95

Steelers' sack leader in 1989, which was his first full season as a starter... Has rapidly emerged as big-play maker on defense at a very early stage in his career... Missed his entire rookie year with a serious knee injury which required reconstructive surgery... Also missed the first seven games of his second season with an injury to the other knee, but has since started 20 of the 25 games he has played... Made seven sacks last year and was the second-leading tackler with 92 including 82 unassisted tackles... Tied for second on the team with three interceptions, which were the first three of his NFL career, and also recovered three fumbles... Was graduated 28th in his high school class of 250.

JERRY OLSAVSKY

Linebacker

6-1 222 2nd year
Pittsburgh

Named first team NFL all-rookie last year by the Pro Football Writers of America as well as Pro Football Weekly and College & Pro Football Newsweekly... Started the last eight games at right inside linebacker, finishing with 41 tackles and one sack on defense... Also made eight tackles on special teams and blocked a punt in the Steelers' 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston... A very smart player who called defensive signals and makes few mistakes... Extremely productive as a rookie 10th-round draft choice... In college became the first Pitt player since 1976 to make more than 100 tackles in three different seasons.

JERROL WILLIAMS

Linebacker

6-5 242 2nd year

GARY ANDERSON SUZIE MCCONNELL LOUIS LIPPS

Behind The Promise.

An Olympic gold medalist. An All-Pro wide receiver. The Steelers' all-time points leader.

They share the firm belief that excellence in sports — as in life — requires hard work and a positive outlook. And they understand how important it is to reinforce this message with young people today.

Because believing in yourself — especially in adolescence — is more than the key to a healthy and satisfying life. It's also an excellent defense against the dangers of substance abuse.

That's why these champions have appeared before more than 150,000 middle school and high school students in the past three years. By personal example, and through stories that kids can relate to, they prove the value of a "never-give-up" attitude.

Blue Cross of Western Pennsylvania, in cooperation with area hospitals, is proud to help Suzie McConnell, Gary Anderson and Louis Lipps realize their potential as positive role models for the youth of our community.

Promises Kept.

Made tremendous impact in first NFL season as Steelers' 1989 rookie of the year... That feat was especially impressive considering his position change, from outside linebacker in college to strong safety for the Steelers... Was named to the NFL all-rookie team by the Pro Football Writers of America... Started his first 15 games before sitting out the season finale with a bruised chest, but he returned to start both playoff games... Led the team in fumbles recovered with five... Was named the AFC defensive player of the week vs. Cleveland when he made his first interception in addition to recovering a fumble and making five solo tackles... Led the team in tackles in the playoffs with 15 including eight vs. Houston and seven vs. Denver... Was the fifth defensive back selected in the 1989 draft... His father is from Midland, Pennsylvania.

DELTON HALLCornerback*

GREAT DIPPING, NO TIPPING.

Now you don't have to go to a restaurant for authentic Mexican flavor. Introducing La Restaurante Tortilla Chips and Salsa.

Light and crispy La Restaurante Tortilla Chips have less salt and more natural corn flavor, for that real restaurant taste. Try La Restaurante Restaurant Style White Tortilla Chips and La Restaurante Gold Tortilla Chips. Both are perfect dipping chips with La Restaurante Authentic Restaurant Style Chunky Salsa. Made with fresh chopped tomatoes, onions, peppers, Mexican spices and a touch of garlic, Chunky Salsa has a zesty flavor. And, like all the quality La Restaurante products, it's 100% natural with no preservatives.

If you like a tortilla chip with a little more zest, Nacho Cheese chips have a hearty, robust flavor because they're made with real cheddar cheese and authentic Mexican spices. You get more taste per chip, more delicious chips for your money. And all La Restaurante Tortilla Chips come in a convenient recloseable twist-tie bag.

Finally, someone has brought the great taste of restaurant tortilla chips and salsa home. Look in the snack section of your grocery store and make a reservation to try La Restaurante today.

Authentic Restaurant Style
Tortilla Chips & Salsa.
